Product Description

Double hydraulic trailer motorcycle trailer

It uses high-strength steel to build the frame, with hot-dip galvanized or sprayed surface treatment, which has excellent corrosion resistance and durability, and can adapt to various harsh road conditions and climate conditions.

The trailer is equipped with a hydraulic lifting system, which can easily adjust the height of the platform, making it safer and more convenient for motorcycles to get on and off. Its load capacity can reach [X] tons, which can meet the transportation needs of most motorcycles, including heavy motorcycles and off-road motorcycles. The tablet surface is designed with a non-slip net plate or a patterned steel plate, combined with reinforced support ribs, to effectively prevent the motorcycle from sliding during transportation.

In terms of safety configuration, the trailer is equipped with a complete lighting system, including turn signals, brake lights, and reflectors, to ensure safe driving at night. At the same time, there is also a mechanical lock for the front wheel and a high-strength strap, which can firmly fix the motorcycle and prevent it from shaking during transportation. The tow bar adopts a thickened and reinforced design, and is equipped with a safety chain to ensure the stability and reliability of the towing process.

In addition, this trailer also has good versatility, can be adapted to the towing device of various models, and is easy to install. Some models support customization, and the size, color, and configuration can be adjusted according to user needs.
